

My family listens to K-LOVE daily and it is great for the whole family. It instills Christian values and I believe our community needs to hear what the station has to present. There are many radio stations that I will not allow my young children to listen to and K-LOVE would be greatly missed if it were displaced by LPFM.